The League's Annual Municipal Advocacy CMO is specifically designed to allow municipal officials to share their ideas and concerns with the state's political leadership. It is important that the vital role our municipalities play in economic development, community enhancement and quality of life is repeatedly articulated to our state representatives. The League's Municipal Advocacy Session provides a unique opportunity each year for municipal leaders to discuss their messages with their legislative delegations – and for the power of the ALM membership's collective voice to be heard. A special legislative reception has been scheduled at Alabama League of Municipalities Headquarters.
